MODULE DESCRIPTION

This course aims to expose students to original English writings of intermediate-advanced level of difficulty and from different fields. It will focus on enhancing students' reading comprehension, as well as on nurturing in them a good taste of the nuances in the English language. The students are in the meantime expected to continuously enlarge their vocabulary building, with particular attention given to more complex and delicate usage of words and expressions. It is hoped that the students could be furnished with a discerning eye for various registers and discourse characteristics of writings in the English language.

STUDENT FEEDBACK

At the end of every semester, students are invited to provide feedback on the learning module and the teaching arrangement through questionnaires. Your feedback is valuable for instructors to enhance the module and its delivery for future students. The instructor and programme coordinators will consider all feedback and respond with actions formally in the annual programme review.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The Macao Polytechnic University requires students to have full commitment to academic integrity when engaging in research and academic activities. Violations of academic integrity, which include but are not limited to plagiarism, collusion, fabrication or falsification, repeated use of assignments and cheating in examinations, are considered as serious academic offenses and may lead to disciplinary actions. Students should read the relevant regulations and guidelines in the Student Handbook which is distributed upon the admission into the University, a copy of which can also be found at www.mpu.edu.mo/student_handbook/.
