MODULE DESCRIPTION

This is the second of the two intermediate English learning modules. The learning module aims to provide students with the grounding in English necessary in business environments, both social and workplace settings. It will further develop students' use of the four language skills (speaking, listening, reading, and writing) with substantial emphasis being placed on reading and writing skills for business correspondence. The integration of authentic materials also enhances the usefulness of the learning module. It also prepares students for Upper-intermediate level courses.

MODULE INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES (ILOS)

On completion of this learning module, students will be able to:

M1.	understand spoken English on business topics covered in the module outline and answer factual questions accurately on what they have heard
M2.	speak spontaneously on business topics and deliver short business presentations in pair/group
M3.	develop various skills such as skimming and scanning to read business topics covered in the module outline, and accurately answer questions on what they have read
M4.	demonstrate the ability to use vocabulary and grammar skills reviewed and practiced in both spoken and written business contexts covered in the module outline
M5.	write short reports and formal business letters on topics covered in the module outline

STUDENT FEEDBACK

At the end of every semester, students are invited to provide feedback on the learning module and the teaching arrangement through questionnaires. Your feedback is valuable for instructors to enhance the module and its delivery for future students. The instructor and programme coordinators will consider all feedback and respond with actions formally in the annual programme review.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The Macao Polytechnic University requires students to have full commitment to academic integrity when engaging in research and academic activities. Violations of academic integrity, which include but are not limited to plagiarism, collusion, fabrication or falsification, repeated use of assignments and cheating in examinations, are considered as serious academic offenses and may lead to disciplinary actions. Students should read the relevant regulations and guidelines in the Student Handbook which is distributed upon the admission into the University, a copy of which can also be found at www.mpu.edu.mo/student_handbook/.
