MODULE DESCRIPTION

This is the first of the two advanced level English learning modules. The learning module aims to develop the communication skills (speaking, listening, reading, writing) students need to succeed in a professional environment, as well as to broaden their knowledge of the business world. It focuses on developing students' fluency and confidence in using the language of business in a variety of contexts. While special emphasis is placed on students' confidence in public speaking and presentation, substantial emphasis is also placed on effective language and organization skills as well as delivery of speech. The integration of authentic materials also enhances the usefulness of the learning module.

MODULE INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES (ILOS)

On completion of this learning module, students will be able to:

M1.	formulate active listening tactics to understand spoken English in business talks/meetings, and to understand business news/interviews by answering advanced-level questions
M2.	prepare and have informal business talks/meetings in class, and deliver visual-aided formal business presentations with appropriate responses in Q & A sessions
M3.	use appropriate strategies in reading and responding to long business texts and news articles
M4.	demonstrate the ability to use contrast and similarity, determiners, continuous forms, paired structures, and third conditional in more challenging language contexts
M5.	demonstrate the ability to use vocabulary skills in collocations, coined expressions, metaphors, similes, verbs with prefixes and prepositions, idioms, compound nouns, and synonyms
M6.	write business proposals and summarise published sources effectively to avoid plagiarism

STUDENT FEEDBACK

At the end of every semester, students are invited to provide feedback on the learning module and the teaching arrangement through questionnaires. Your feedback is valuable for instructors to enhance the module and its delivery for future students. The instructor and programme coordinators will consider all feedback and respond with actions formally in the annual programme review.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The Macao Polytechnic University requires students to have full commitment to academic integrity when engaging in research and academic activities. Violations of academic integrity, which include but are not limited to plagiarism, collusion, fabrication or falsification, repeated use of assignments and cheating in examinations, are considered as serious academic offenses and may lead to disciplinary actions. Students should read the relevant regulations and guidelines in the Student Handbook which is distributed upon the admission into the University, a copy of which can also be found at www.mpu.edu.mo/student_handbook/.
