MODULE DESCRIPTION

Building on Advanced English I, this module aims to bring students' English proficiency in reading and writing to the advanced level by immersing them in original and classical English writings of considerable level of difficulty, covering a wide range of genres and areas, including sociology, economics, language, education, family, race, urbanization, science and technology, etc.

It is built around the idea that writers learn by reading. The reading materials nurture in them the ability to appreciate the aesthetics of the language and a discerning eye for characteristics of first-rate writings, which students could emulate.

MODULE INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES (ILOS)

On completion of this learning module, students will be able to:

M1.	relate the target text to its social, historical, and cultural background;
M2.	use different reading strategies for different types of texts;
M3.	deal with difficult words, phrases and sentences, and to distinguish the subtle differences between synonyms;
M4.	appreciate and analyse English writings and understand rhetorical devices such as metaphors and symbolism;
M5.	analyse their own sentences and their weaknesses and develop strategies to edit their own sentences and to make stylistic choice to improve their writing;
M6.	utilize different kinds of learning tools such as dictionaries, encyclopaedias, and online-resources to collect data for writing and speaking tasks and solving other problems;
M7.	express their ideas in topics relevant to the themes of the reading materials and their life and study.

These ILOs aims to enable students to attain the following Programme Intended Learning Outcomes (PILOs):

STUDENT FEEDBACK

At the end of every semester, students are invited to provide feedback on the learning module and the teaching arrangement through questionnaires. Your feedback is valuable for instructors to enhance the module and its delivery for future students. The instructor and programme coordinators will consider all feedback and respond with actions formally in the annual programme review.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The Macao Polytechnic University requires students to have full commitment to academic integrity when engaging in research and academic activities. Violations of academic integrity, which include but are not limited to plagiarism, collusion, fabrication or falsification, repeated use of assignments and cheating in examinations, are considered as serious academic offenses and may lead to disciplinary actions. Students should read the relevant regulations and guidelines in the Student Handbook which is distributed upon the admission into the University, a copy of which can also be found at www.mpu.edu.mo/student_handbook/.
