MODULE DESCRIPTION

This one-year First Year English course aims to increase students' exposure to different contexts of using English for authentic communicative purposes. Basically, the four macro-skills are covered. Students are encouraged to build their confidence in expressing themselves in English through various activities and tasks. In addition, 20 hours would be used as the beginning part of developing students' English reading, writing and speaking ability required as a nurse. Emphasis is placed on the medical terminology about health concepts, diseases and other nursing terms.

MODULE INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES (ILOS)

On completion of this learning module, students will be able to:

M1.	understand some medical terms and practice speaking, listening, reading and writing in English
M2.	present a short dialogue
M3.	give a short oral presentation
M4.	learn some language learning strategies

These ILOs aims to enable students to attain the following Programme Intended Learning Outcomes (PILOs):

STUDENT FEEDBACK

At the end of every semester, students are invited to provide feedback on the learning module and the teaching arrangement through questionnaires. Your feedback is valuable for instructors to enhance the module and its delivery for future students. The instructor and programme coordinators will consider all feedback and respond with actions formally in the annual programme review.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The Macao Polytechnic University requires students to have full commitment to academic integrity when engaging in research and academic activities. Violations of academic integrity, which include but are not limited to plagiarism, collusion, fabrication or falsification, repeated use of assignments and cheating in examinations, are considered as serious academic offenses and may lead to disciplinary actions. Students should read the relevant regulations and guidelines in the Student Handbook which is distributed upon the admission into the University, a copy of which can also be found at www.mpu.edu.mo/student_handbook/.
